Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or not, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Griffin's and Baker's bookstores, a full set of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

J. D. Soule's Esq., has been appointed trustee of the village in place of Mr. Atkins, who is now living in Boston.

THE WEATHER.—During Saturday night and yesterday quite a quantity of rain fell which was welcomed. To-day weather is pleasant and cool.

A MEETING of the board of trustees of village was held this afternoon, on business having relation to the widening of Kingman street. At five o'clock result of the meeting had not transpired.

THE attention of our readers is called the advertisement of Messrs. H. C. Stet & Co., in another column. This firm is enterprising and reliable, keep large and well-selected stock of goods, and sell as cheap as the cheapest. Give us a call. You will be well treated and you don't buy.

BALTIMORE OYSTERS. These luscious oysters, as our readers will see by reference to their advertisement, are now being received by Messrs. Steere and Downing, and sold by the dish, quart, or gallon, or in larger quantities, to suit the purchaser. Messrs. D. & S., however, confine themselves to the Oyster bed. You can be served at their dining-rooms at all reasonable hours, with fine meals or lunches, in good style, at reasonable prices.

WHO SHALL BE SPEAKER?—We heartily endorse the following from the Vermonters. No one who has in Gen. Grandey preside in the House years past will suspect the Vermonters of having any purely "local" prejudices in favor of Gen. Grandey.

The question of who shall be speaker must first be canvassed. We hope local all other foolish consideration may be ignored, and fitness alone be made test of preference. If on the one geographical eligibility only, and the other a ripe experience and thorough knowledge of the rules and usages of legislative bodies together with ability to dispatch business, the good sense of the representative men of Vermont must choose the latter. They will remember that the office is designed for vice, and not for honor. Without living or attempting to prejudice the aims of any gentleman, we may say that we believe no member who has returned, would serve in this capacity with more credit to himself and the State, or more acceptably to the Assembly, than the Hon. George W. Grandey Vergennes. He is eminently qualified for the position. With long and able legislative experience, having had even or twelve elections to the House, he has also had three years experience as Speaker, when, as some one has said of him, "he presided with dignity, ruled with decision, decided with impartiality and treated every one with the respect that was due him."

The New England Fair.

VERMONT PREMIUM.

The following premiums were awarded to Vermont exhibitors at the New England Fair:

Cattle—Henry M. Arms, Springfield, sweepstakes premium for best bull of any age; also for the best cow of any age.

Herd premiums were awarded to H. M. Arms, of Springfield, and A. M. Winslow, of Putney.

Three years old bulls—To H. M. Arms, Springfield.

Two years old bulls—D. R. May, Springfield.

One year old bulls—A. M. Winslow and Son, Putney.

Bull Calves—A. M. Winslow and Son.

Calf—A. W. Griswold, Morrisville, Vermont.

Merino Sheep—Bucks, three years old—Jerome Holden, Westmaris er; Henry C. Gleason, Sturtevant.

Two years old—E. S. Stowell, Cornwall; Jerome Holden, L. L. Wright, Weybridge; F. D. Barton, Vergennes.

One year old—E. S. Stowell, F. D. Barton, J. D. Wheat, Putney; J. Holden.

Buck lambs—E. S. Stowell, J. H. Holden.

Ewes, three years old—E. S. Stowell, J. H. Holden.

Two years old—E. S. Stowell, L. L. Wright.

Pen of ten Ewes—J. Holden, F. D. Barton, H. C. Gleason.

Sweepstakes, Bucks and Ewes—E. S. Stowell, Cornwall.

Messrs. L. M. D. Smith & Co. handed us an advertisement, but too late for insertion to-day, offering to the public a stock of Ready-Made Clothing and Furnishing Goods unsurpassed in variety and style, by any Clothing House in the county. The ad. will appear to-morrow.

MR. JOEL ELLIS, of Rutland, has presented the editor of the Herald with a tomato which weighed one pound and nine ounces.

FUNERAL OF L. D. GILCHRIST.—The burial services of the late Mr. L. D. Gilchrist were held at Northfield on Sunday at 5 o'clock P. M. As we have before mentioned, Mr. Gilchrist had been in the employ of the Vermont Central Railroad Company since the road was opened, and for the last twelve years he has filled the important positions of station Agent at Northfield, and General Baggage Agent of the Road. Through his strict integrity, genuine fidelity, and singleness of purpose to serve the interests of his employers, he had endeared himself to them in a remarkable degree; and the same traits of character had made for himself a wide circle of friends among the employees of the Road, and withal among whom his acquaintance was extended.

Through the kindness of Superintendent Merrill, a special train left St. Albans at 1 o'clock p. m. taking Mr. Merrill, Asst. Superintendent Locklin and many of the friends of the deceased connected with the road, and considerable numbers of the Masons, to which Fraternity the deceased belonged. It was a beautiful September Sabbath afternoon in the romantic Village of Northfield, when a large congregation of friends from far and near gathered around the pleasant cottage, (too soon made desolate by the intruder, death), to mingle their sorrows with the widow, the son and two daughters.

Prayers were offered by Rev. Mr. Morgan of the M. E. Church, and the body removed to the hearse—to the grave. The deceased was buried with the impressive and solemn ceremonies of the Masonic Order, according to previous request, G. J. Warden Park Davis officiating. The concluding prayer at the grave was made by Rev. John Gregory of De Witt Clinton No. 15, Northfield, the parent Lodge.

Delegations from the following Lodges were present:

Franklin, No. 4, St. Albans.

English, No. 84, St. Albans.

McDonough, No. 21, Essex.

North Star, No. 12, Richmond.

Winoo Ki, No. 49, Waterbury.

Aurora, No. 22, Montpelier.

About 250 Masons were present in the procession, to bid farewell and deposit their sprig of evergreen in the new-made grave. The ceremonies being over, it was early twilight when the procession reached the Church, and the train returned to St. Albans before the services were completed. On account of the lateness of the hour, we understand that the sermon of the Rev. Mr. Morgan was deferred until next Sabbath.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons. dt5-94.

The palm of superiority is awarded to Mrs. S. A. Allen for her Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle), and a grateful public appreciates the very low price, One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it.

Every family needs to keep in the house something that will cure headache, toothache, ague pains, lameness, bruises, cramps, and other kinds of pain and suffering, and what is there so good as Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil.

A STARTLING TRUTH.—Thousands die annually from neglected coughs and colds, which soon ripen into consumption or other equally fatal diseases of the lungs; when, by the timely use of a single bottle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, these Wives could have been preserved to a green old age.

THE DIFFERENCE.—One of the chief points of difference between civilized and barbarous mankind is the attention given to the natural covering for the head—the one being carefully cut, cleaned, and brushed, and the other allowed to remain dirty and unkempt. The use of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" will ensure all that could be desired by civilization or ignored by barbarism.—Boston Post, 4th.
